A GATHERING PRAYER

Adapted from Ecclesiastes 3:1-8

FOR EVERYTHING THERE IS A SEASON, AND A TIME FOR EVERY PURPOSE UNDER HEAVEN:

Today, we come together to remember our years at St. Elizabeth's School, to give thanks to our parents, teachers, Sisters of the Holy Child Jesus, and priests who taught us, encouraged us, modeled for us how to live the Christian life fully.

THERE IS A TIME TO BE BORN:

Let us remember all the children of the St. E's graduates of 1955.
Now let us hear the names of our children.
(Each graduate individually says aloud the names of their children)

THERE IS A TIME TO DIE:

Let us remember our deceased classmates: Eugene Fraher, William Skelly, Anthony Neary, Catherine Martin, Lois Raetz, Robert Brown, Eileen Lampe, John Duffy

Let us remember our deceased teachers, principals: Mother Mary Helena, Mother Mary Celsus, Mother Mary Ethelbert, Mother Mary Margaret, Mother Mary Philomena, Mother Mary Eucharistica, Mother Mary Claude;
In silence let us remember our deceased parents and family members.

THERE IS A TIME TO EMBRACE:

Today we come to give thanks and embrace each other. Could our teachers come forward: Sr. Thomas Moore (Sr. Anna Daly), Sr. Mary Owen, Sr. Roberta Dougherty, Sr. Christopher Mary (Sr. Elizabeth Loomis) and the present principal at St. Elizabeths, Sr. Noreen Nolan, O.P.

(Let the graduates of 1955 stand with their partner as their names are read)

THERE IS A TIME TO SPEAK AND TO LOVE:

Tonight is a special moment in time. We will never be in this place again. Let us embrace and savor this space and time together. Let us give thanks to our God for the gift of this gathering and our classmates- Aileen, Liz, Joan, Judy, Ed, Bob and Rich for calling us together.

NOW LET US CONTINUE THIS CELEBRATION

ALL SING: Alleluia
